DETAILED ACTIONClaim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 14-18 and 21-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeGuzman (5440778) in view of Griffin (4754518).
 - a. DeGuzman discloses a mopping trolley as disclosed except for two receptacles and being side by side.
 - b. DeGuzman discloses the claimed invention except for side by side.
 - c. The claim would have been obvious since Griffin discloses a mopping trolley having side by side receptacles (43&44) because the modification one carriage bottom having side by side receptacles for another would have yielded predictable results to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention especially since the function has not been changed.
3. Claims 14-18 and 21-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeGuzman (5440778) in view of Baek (3504392).
 - d. DeGuzman discloses a mopping trolley as disclosed except for two receptacles and being side by side.
 - e. DeGuzman discloses the claimed invention except for side by side.

Art Unit: 3727

f. The claim would have been obvious since Baek discloses a mopping trolley having side by side receptacles (fig.1) because the modification one carriage bottom having side by side receptacles for another would have yielded predictable results to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention especially since the function has not been changed.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 19-20 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

g. New art has been applied to the claims and newly allowed claims have been indicated.
